Well, get ready for our May 24th fashion spread in honor of Carrie, Miranda, Samantha and Charlotte. We had a great shoot today at the fabulous and very trendy Mosaic Modern Fusion Restaurant (newly relocated on Washington Avenue) and along the street (including a shot in the middle of the road). Thank you Metro for putting up our Sex & The City poster at a bus stop. I hope they know that I want that back.

I'd show you the pics, but I wouldn't want to spoil the surprise. However, I can assure you that you will want these clothes. The ladies were all excited about Samantha's all-white day look and Carrie's structure yellow silk balloon skirt. I don't think I could pull it off, but I'd like to try and the best part is that some of the items are actually reasonable. Just don't fall in love with the fairy princess babydoll in plum with embroidered trim and layers of chiffon, it's nearly 4-digits or the gold and black silk Prada heels because they are about $750. But Charlotte wears a respectable Calvin Klein that's just over $100 and I found many fashionable frocks at Alice's Vintage shop on Delmar that can be acquired for much less. Ok, enough teasing. If you're like me, you've been reading the wires and reveling in photos of the stylish foursome.

But if you want to check out some of the coveted looks from the film, including a few flirty Carrie looks and the most stellar Miranda look of all time.
